Take a few dollars to Caldwell's and see what a handsome overcoat "Uncle" Bob Hazelrigg will sell you for them.

Report says that the Eastern division of the Newport News & Mississippi Valley railroad, between Huntington and Lexington, will pass into the hands of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad.

We learn with regret that Mr. David Bratton, near Wade's Mill, father of Mrs. R. M. Smith and Mrs. W. A. Sutton, of this city, is very seriously ill. His recovery is very doubtful.

Mrs. Peter R. Everett died at her home on Grassy Lick pike, this county, Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1891. Funeral at the Baptist church, this city, Thursday, by Rev. E. E. Bonar, and burial in Macphelah cemetery.

Mr. R. M. Coons is something of a vegetable raiser his ownself. He brought into the Advocate office Saturday a beet raised in his garden that measured 20 inches in circumference, was 20 inches long and weighed 9 pounds.

Ed. Mitchell, the hardwareman, always gets there when he tries. He went to Winchester Friday and sold 17 fine mantels and grates. Mt. Sterling merchants handle goods of the best quality and on as close margins as any merchants in the State. Investigate the home market before you buy; you can do as well here as anywhere on earth.

It is reported on what we have reason to believe good authority, that Mr. Charles Duty, a wide-awake and very popular business man, will January 1st take an interest in the Gazette Company. Charlie is a hustler and will bring to the Gazette an abundance of energy and business tact that will be anything but a disadvantage to it.

The Kentucky Midland railroad has asked the Circuit Judge, John E. Cooper, for a writ of mandamus to compel County Clerk Geo. A. Whitney to enter upon the subscription books of said railroad the subscription to the amount of $100,000, voted by Montgomery county at the late election, held for that purpose. The case will be at once taken up to the Court of Appeals let Judge Cooper decide as he may in the case.

Young man before you speak evil of or slightly about any woman, it matters not who she may be, think of what if she should be your mother, wife, sister or daughter. She is related to some one who may be just as good or perhaps better than yourself. No true gentleman can afford to speak ill of any woman who makes the least pretense to respectability.

Speak of woman and your Creator only with reverence.

Joe Mulhatton was arrested, "so the papers say," in Pittsburg, on Wednesday, charged with robbing a room-mate. Mulhatton's insatiable desire to keep himself before the public has led him to adopt some peculiar ways of advertising himself, and this may be one of them. Joe will lie, but we do not believe he will steal. In a business acquaintance extending over two years we found him strictly honest. Based upon this, we are not inclined to give any credence to the statement.

Judge George W. Gist died at Washington City, last Monday night. Judge Gist was for many years a resident of this county, and served as County Judge for eight years. For a number of years past he has been a resident of Washington, but is yet remembered very kindly by a host of friends here. He served in the Union army as Captain and Colonel in Kentucky regiments from the beginning to the close of the war. Col. Gist's funeral took place on Thursday, at 2 p. m. The Grand Army, the Loyal Legion and the Veterans' Union honored their comrades' memory. The interment was at Arlington.

W. W. REED'S.

If you want a bargain in cook or heating stoves, call on Ed. Mitchell, the leading hardware merchant in Mt. Sterling.

Bob Hazelrigg and Ed. Jones have determined to break the record this month in the matter of sales. Go to Caldwell's with your money and see how cheap they will sell you.

W. S. Caldwell has removed to his new quarters in the Odd Fellows' building, next door to Green, Clay & Chenault's where he is selling the finest line of clothing in the city at the very lowest price for cash.

Morrow & Johnson, job printers, have sold their office to L. T. and John F. Wood, giving possession yesterday. The Gazette Company will January 1st buy of the Messrs. Wood the job office recently sold these gentlemen by that Company.

W. S. Caldwell has the goods and he wants your money. Go there and see how nice a suit of clothes or what a nobby hat you can buy. Remember the place—new Odd Fellows' building, next door to Green, Clay & Chenault's.

Toll-Gate Renting.

The gates on the Owingsville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike Road, will be rented on Saturday, November 28th, 1891, at the office of J. M. Bigstaff, Mt. Sterling, Ky. Renting to be by sealed bids. Right reserved to reject any or all bids. Renting at 11 o'clock, A. M.

A. W. BASCOM, Pres't.

On Sunday morning while the family of Mr. W. H. K. Kokendof, of Bramlette, Nicholas county, were at church, the house was entered and the thieves secured $130 and a silver watch. One hundred dollars of the money belonged to Mr. Kokendof, and the balance to his son, B. P. Kokendof. Three tramps were seen by some neighbors coming from the house.

One James Crockett confined in jail for robbery, managed to raise a row there on Thursday night, and coming in contact with Logan Murphy, a prisoner from Magoffin county, under sentence of death for killing his father, sent here for safe keeping, he got into a difficulty with him. In some way Murphy secured an old pocket knife, every blade of which was broken, but which he had sharpened on the wall of his cell, and with this he cut Crockett some seven times. Only the short blades kept him from adding another to his list of murders. Crockett will soon be well.

Judge W. H. Holt, Chief Justice of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, is a busy man, who rarely finds time to leave Frankfort, where he has a beautiful home. The readers of the Louisville papers, however, every week or two read a personal notice saying that the Chief Justice is at one of the hotels in this city. For a long time the Judge could not understand how it was that the newspapers so persistently misrepresented his whereabouts. He has at last discovered that the gentleman who so frequently visits this city is a Mr. J. A. Holt, a farmer, who is said not to object to being mistaken for a celebrity. [Courier-Journal.]

On Friday night, at a called meeting of the City Council, an election was ordered for Saturday, Nov. 28th, for the purpose of taking the sense of the people whether or not they will accept the Electric Light Company's offer to furnish 15 arc lights and 45 incandescents for five years for $2,000 per year; the Electric Light Company agreeing to waive its right to more than a one year contract. We are reliably informed that the Electric Light Company offered to so amend their original proposition as to take the contract for 15 arc and 45 incandescents lights for one year at $1,800, provided it did not have to go before the people for a vote. We cannot understand why the Electric Light Company can afford to make $200 difference in their bid between a vote by a full Council and a vote by the people. The people will want to know why, gentlemen.

Parties wishing a good home will find it to their interest to call on the undersigned for further particulars.

W. S. RICHART.

Near Beaver Lick, Ky., Newton Oder shot and killed his brother Marion, on Saturday night. The two brothers had been on bad terms for some time, and met at an entertainment, where they had a quarrel. They were separated and later on Marion took the lady who had accompanied him to her home. As he returned, Newton met him and renewed the quarrel, with the above result.

The Equitable Life Assurance Company.

The following receipts will explain themselves. Everybody knows that that grand life insurance company, the Equitable, makes prompt settlements of its death claims; and those who have dealings with Col. Parcell, also know that they place their interests in the hands of an honorable and a clever gentleman. Mr. E. S. Cunningham is the local agent for this company, and your interests will not be neglected if left with him. Read these receipts and then insure your life in this rock-ribbed company.

Owingsville, Ky.,

Nov. 9, 1891.

Received of S. M. Parcell, Gen. Agt. of the Equitable Life Insurance Co., of New York, $2,000, being amount of my father's E. S. Crow, life policy in the Equitable. Papers were made up on the 20th of October and check dated October 29th.

W. D. CROW.

West Liberty, Ky.,

Nov. 14, 1891.

S. M. Parcell, General Agent Equitable Life Insurance Company of New York:

DEAR SIR:—I have received your check for $3,294.60, in payment of W. A. Maxey's life policy in the Equitable.

The company returns all the money paid by Mr. Maxey and $3,000 besides. My husband only lived a year and four days after taking the policy. I wish to thank you for preparing the necessary papers without trouble or expense to myself. Yours,

SARAH J. MAXEY.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. B. F. Hungerford, of Shelbyville, will preach at the Baptist church in this city the fifth Sunday (29th) of this month.

On the second Sunday in January next a protracted meeting will begin at the Main Street Christian Church, this city, and continue indefinitely. Elder W. S. Keene, of Covington, will assist the pastor, Elder H. D. Clark, in conducting the services.

One of the most remarkable church meetings in the annals of church history of Missouri closed recently. Plattsburg, with a population of 1,800, held a protracted meeting, conducted by Elder Martin, of St. Louis, resulting in 372 conversions to the Christian church. One night 65 joined.

Elder D. G. Combs, of this place, who has just returned from an evangelistic tour in the interest of the Christian church, reports the following result of his trip: At Willard he had 58 additions to the church, and at that place he also organized a church of 98 members and organized a Young People's Aid Society. At Olive Hill, on the same trip, he had two additions to the church. [Hazel Green Herald.]

PERSONAL.

Mr. Thos. P. Sutton, of Flemingsburg, is visiting his son, W. A. Sutton.

Miss Pearl Brooks, of Paris, is visiting Miss Bessie Trumbo, of this city.

Miss Stella Thompson is visiting her friend, Miss Kerns, of Bourbon county.

R. Reid Rogers, of Frankfort, made a flying business trip to this city Saturday.

Hon. J. M. Oliver, of Frenchburg, was among our Court-day visitors yesterday.

Mrs. C. M. Grubbs is visiting Mr. Grubbs' father's family, at Washington C. H., Ohio.

Miss Jessie Hazelrigg is at home from a very pleasant visit to friends in Covington.

Miss Laura Lindsay was quite sick the past week, but at this writing is very much better.

Miss Elva Gatewood, of Mt. Sterling, is the guest of Mrs. Dr. J. M. Poyntz. [Richmond Register.]

Hon. W. O. Mize, of Hazel Green, is in the city looking after some business interests and visiting friends.

Miss Alice Pittman, of Texas, is on a visit to her brother, Robert Pittman, near Howard's Mill, this county.

Miss Nola Sutton returned the past week from a two months' visit to friends in Fleming and Mason counties.

E. K. Schultz, of Louisville, editor of the F. & L. U. department of the Farmers' Home Journal, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bailey, of Fayette county, and Miss Emma Turnbull, of Winchester, are visiting Mrs. Mary Stoner in this county.

Dr. J. A. Snowden, of Wade's Mill, (may his shadow never grow less) was in the city yesterday (Court-day) and gave the Advocate a call.

Mr. T. T. Cope, of Frenchburg, was in the city a couple of days the past week looking after some legal business. He returned to his home Saturday afternoon.

Judge G. B. Swango, Register of the Land Office, passed through the city yesterday, with his family, to make his home in Frankfort, where the business of his office engages his attention.

Mrs. Geo. Hamilton Sr. started for Missouri on the 14th to join her daughter, Mrs. Woodson, who with her husband will spend the winter in Texas. They go for the benefit of Mr. Woodson, whose health is very poor.

Mrs. J. D. Reid and daughter Anna left on Friday for Thomasville, Ga., where it is proposed they shall spend the winter for the benefit of Miss Anna's health. We earnestly hope the change of climate may prove all that is hoped for in Miss Anna's case.

Mrs. James D. Ford, of Marion Center, Kansas, and Mrs. Nannie Carter, of Clover Bottom, Woodford county, were the past week visiting their Aunt, Mrs. Virginia Botts. Mrs. Botts on Friday completed her 87th year, and is very feeble. For a length of time she has been confined to the house, and as she has already outlived the four score years allotted to man, there is little probability that she will ever be much better.

For Sale.

An anthracite stove, with oven attached. Will sell cheap. Also a cooking stove for sale. Apply to

THOS. WHITT,

Jeweler.

There was a large crowd in town yesterday, Court-day. About 400 cattle on the market, and these mostly those left over from last Court-day; not many good ones; the better class of oxen being noticeably scarce. Cattle sold from $2.20 to $3.40. Plug horses were a drag on the market, but few being sold. Quite a number of mules on the market, and but little demand for the poorer class. Mules from 15 to 16½ hands sold from $80 to $175.

Beard, of Lexington, bought 1 pair of mules of Sam Rawls, for $300, and 1 pair of extra good ones from Will Phelps, for $350.

Twelve mules sold at Harper's stable at an average of $115, and one extra mule colt for $65.

A large crowd in town but the merchants do not report a very good business.

When in Louisville stop with R. McCleary, at the Phoenix Hotel, on Sixth street, near Main. Special rates to tobacco men.

No Time to be Wasted.

While times seem a little dull, in order to start things moving along, I will sell anything in the jewelry line at very close figures. Just look at prices quoted:

3 oz. Silverine Watches, 11 jewels, $3.50; Gold filled Watches, from $12.50 to $25.00; Rolled gold plated chains, guaranteed, $1.50 to $3.00; Walnut clocks, $2.25 to $3.50. Come and I will convince you I will sell you at a bargain.

THOS. WHITT.

$25 Reward.

Strayed from Clay City on the night of Nov. 1st, a white horse, 16 hands high, eight years old, light mane and tail, foretop clipped, a speck in the right eye, a natural saddle horse, and harness marks on him. The above reward will be paid for his return to Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Governor Brown issued a Thanksgiving proclamation as follows: "Commonwealth of Kentucky, Executive Department. In observance of a long established custom, I respectfully recommend that Thursday, the 26th day of November, be set apart as a day of thanksgiving and prayer by all the citizens of our beloved Commonwealth. Almighty God has spared us a visitation of pestilence and blessed us with peace and abundance. Let us return thanks for His great bounties and manifold mercies. Let the poor and afflicted be remembered in charities.

"In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and caused the great seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed.

"Done at Frankfort, this, the 16th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and in the one hundredth year of our Commonwealth.

JOHN YOUNG BROWN (L. S.)

By the Governor.

JOHN W. HEADLEY,

Secretary of State.

Lee Fisher's barber shop is the place to go for a first-class hair-cut or a nice, smooth shave. He employs none but first-class workmen and guarantees satisfaction in every respect. One of the best evidences of the good work done in his shop is that his customers will go nowhere else once they have tried him. Remember the place—Mayville street, under Green, Clay & Chenault's store.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Betsy Wireman, wife of our countryman, John Wireman, died Tuesday, Nov. 3, at 11 a. m., of rheumatism, aged about 60 years. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church, and was ready to go when the summons came. [Herald.]

Mrs. Mildred Priest, aged 87 years, died at the home of her son, S. S. Priest, near Sideview, this county, on Wednesday, Nov. 11th, 1891.

She was married to Daniel Priest in 1823, and was the mother of six children, only two of whom, S. S. and Thomas W. survive her. For many years she was a member of the Old School Baptist church, and was one of the veritable mothers of Israel. Aunt Mildred, as she was called by all, had a strong hold upon the affections of all who knew her. Her gentle, pure life was such as to show to the world around her that her heart's desire was to show forth the love and truth of the religion of the blessed Christ. Too few such lives are seen in the world around us, and their full worth is only appreciated by us when they have been ended. Her burial took place on Thursday in our beautiful cemetery.
